CITTA' STUDI CASA CON GIARDINO

0 €

What's warmer, tactile and welcoming than wood? The oak parquet laid in a herringbone pattern is one of the main features of this Milanese residence, a 170 sqm apartment with an exclusive private garden of 270 sqm. We are in the Città Studi area, inside a beautiful building of the early twentieth century, ...

... that contribute to the right privacy. In this house everything is sought after, starting from the combination of wooden floors, with a sophisticated taste given the excellent quality and color of the walls with high ceilings embellished with plaster decorations that have allowed the insertion of spotlights to the entrance and decorative lighting elements in the central part of the living room. Many details that complete the house: the presence of a ...
